5) The chairman's remarks on the resolution of the Board are noted in para 2 of this letter dt 3.1.8.55 now received. The Board has already incurred a loss in respect of the formation of this layout consequent on the revision of the cost of water supply work. The Board seems to take no notice of the loss incurred. There are no strong grounds for the reduction as resolved by the Board. The orders when the orders already passed may be reconsidered.

To

Sir,

Subject:- Reduction in rate in respect of site No.75 in Sunkenahalli Extension allotted to Sri P. Veerappa--Corporator.

With reference to correspondence ending with your letter No.L.12553/ITB.5-54-117 dated 12-1-55, I write to state that Sri P. Veerappa again represented to the Board on 23-6-55 to show him reduction in the value of the site allotted to him at Rs.3/- per Sq.Yd. the rate at which the previous site in Jayanagar was allotted to him. His request was again placed before the Board at the meeting held on 10-8-55 and after considering the subject it was resolved "that a recommendation on the lines of the previous resolution of the Board to reduce the value of site No. 75 of Sunkenahalli from Rs.7/- to Rs.5/- per Sq.Yd. be made to Government."

2) In this connection it may be said that site No.79 measuring 30'x50' was allotted to him in VIth Block of Jayanagar at Rs.3/- per Sq.Yd., and this site No.75 in Sunkenahalli measuring 31'x45' was given to him in exchange at the rate of Rs.7/- per Sq.Yd. The Board while reselling this realeased site at Jayanagar have realised Rs.4/- per Sq.Yd. and by selling this site to him at Rs.5/- the Board stands to lose about a rupee per Sq.Yd in this entire transaction.

3) I request you in the circumstances to obtain and communicate approval of Government to the resolution passed by the Board.

Yours faithfully,

(Y.C.Hombalayya)
Chairman.
